Subject: Microsoft Settlement

To whom it may concern:

I feel the proposed settlement is not strict enough against Microsoft. What they did was obviously illegal in many ways, and much of it goes unpunished if the current proposal is followed. However, I'm glad the offer by Microsoft contribute to our nation's schools was rejected. That proposal would have only served to boost the company's monopoly by allowing them to take over the education area, which is currently dominated by other operating systems.

I agree with Dan Kegel's proposals found here:
<<http://www.kegel.com/remedy/letter.html>>, and I have co-signed the letter.

Thank you for continuing this case, and I hope Microsoft tastes justice before this case ends.
